01 Become My Consultant

PROMPT

COPY & PASTE

"Act as the top 1% consultant in the world for my industry. Before giving advice, ask me the 10 questions you need answered to fully understand my business."

Why it works • This instantly makes AI smarter, because it gathers context before it gives advice.

02 Find My Biggest Bottleneck

PROMPT

COPY & PASTE

"Based on this description of my business, identify the three biggest constraints preventing growth. Tell me which one I should solve first, and why."

Why it works • Most businesses don't have a marketing problem — they have a bottleneck problem.

03 Find Hidden Revenue

PROMPT

COPY & PASTE

"Analyze my business and give me 20 ways I could increase revenue without adding new employees."

Why it works · It often surfaces opportunities that were hiding in plain sight.

04 Become My Customer

PROMPT

COPY & PASTE

"Pretend you are my ideal customer. Tell me why you would NOT buy from me, what confuses you, and what would make you trust me more."

Why it works · It can transform your website copy and sales messaging overnight.

05 Write Better Marketing

PROMPT

COPY & PASTE

"Using Donald Miller's StoryBrand framework and Alex Hormozi's value equation, rewrite my homepage so visitors immediately understand why they should choose me."

Why it works · A fast, proven upgrade for almost any business website.

06 Build a 90-Day Marketing Plan

PROMPT

COPY & PASTE

"Create a 90-day marketing plan for my business with weekly actions, social media ideas, email campaigns, referral strategies, and community outreach opportunities."

Why it works · An entire quarter's worth of marketing ideas in minutes.

07 Automate Repetitive Work

PROMPT

COPY & PASTE

"What repetitive tasks in my business could AI automate? Give me 25 examples and explain exactly how to implement each one."

Why it works · It gets owners thinking differently about efficiency.

08 CEO Weekly Review

EVERY FRIDAY

PROMPT

COPY & PASTE

"Act as my executive coach. Here are my wins, struggles, metrics, and biggest decisions from this week. Ask me five hard questions that will make me a better leader."

Why it works · It may be the highest-ROI prompt on the entire list.

09 Customer Journey Audit

PROMPT

COPY & PASTE

"Walk through my customer experience from discovering my business through becoming a loyal customer. Identify every friction point and suggest improvements."

Why it works · Almost every business loses customers to unnecessary friction.

10 The Million-Dollar Prompt

PROMPT

COPY & PASTE

"If you bought my business tomorrow and had one year to double revenue without doubling expenses, what would you do first? Give me a step-by-step plan."

Why it works · It forces AI to think strategically instead of tactically.

BONUS

The Blind-Spot Finder

PROMPT

COPY & PASTE

"What am I not asking that I should be asking? Based on everything I've shared, identify my blind spots and the opportunities I'm probably missing."

Why it works · Sometimes AI's greatest value isn't the answers — it's the questions you never thought to ask.

“

The people who win with AI won't be the ones who know the most prompts. They'll be the ones who ask the best questions.*

AI is becoming the world's greatest assistant, strategist, researcher, marketer, and coach — but only if you know how to direct it.

Start with one prompt this week. Give the AI real context about your business, push back on its answers, and ask follow-ups. The more you direct it, the sharper it gets.
